PROPOSED SAILINGS FROM

(Subject to Alteration).

PARTHIA..... THURSDAY... 1 Jan. 8th.

BATAVIA..... THURSDAY... 1 Feb. 4th.

THE Steamship

graphed its agent in London to demand the release of the Portuguese officers, and a joint commission to inquire into the matter. A dispatch from Paris says that the belief prevails that Portuguese officials, fomented the trouble to hamper the arbitrators in the Delagoa Bay Railway dispute. One of the shareholders said to-night that if the decision of the arbitrators was adverse to Portugal Secretary Blaine would insist on the payment of proper damages and the restitution of the property.

CHICAGO, December 5th.
The fact that the City Council last night passed an ordinance providing for the issue of $5,000,000 bonds in aid of the World's Fair was cabled this morning to Director Kohlsaat, who is now in Europe. The reply was received from him this afternoon. He said Attorney-General Webster, Sir Henry Wood and other prominent Englishmen, favor the appointment of a commission by the British Government to supervise the arrangements for the British exhibits at the fair. This looks very promising for the foreign end of the exhibit so soon after the announcement of the completion of the financial arrangements, and the directors are pleased.

PARIS, December 5th.
Another daring railroad robbery has been committed in the south of France. The thief made an attack with a knife upon a passenger in one of the compartments of a train carrying money and valuable property from the train. The train was stopped and after a long chase the robber was captured.

ZANZIBAR, December 5th.
Emilia Pasha, at the head of the German expedition, has arrived at Lake Victoria. The expedition had a number of fights with Arab slave traders, but it was successful in all its engagements.

WASHINGTON, December 5th.
The proposition for a compromise on the silver question, which is represented as emanating from the Executive Mansion, has been laid before the silver men of both houses. This proposition is that Congress pass a bill at this time instructing the Secretary of the Treasury to purchase $13,000,000 or $15,000,000 worth of silver with which the market is said to be stocked at present. This proposition meets with the approval of conservative men in both houses. But the advocates of free coinage feel so confident of their ability to pass a Free-coinage bill through Congress at this session, that they do not seem inclined to accept it. Much interest is manifested by members of the House, and particularly the Western members, in the appointment of the chairman of the Committee on Coinage, Weights and Measures to succeed Conner, who resigned to become Minister to Brazil. Wickman of Ohio is senior member of the committee, but his views on the silver question do not coincide with those of Speaker Reed. Walker of Massachusetts is the next member in point of seniority, and he supports the Speaker in opposition to free coinage. It is the opinion of members of the Coinage Committee that Reed will select a chairman from outside the committee.

A. K. Tingle, Special Supervising Agent of the Treasury Department, has made his report. He presents some interesting facts regarding opium smuggling. The increase of the duty in 1883 from $6 to $10 per pound stimulated smuggling and encouraged the investment of large capital in the organization of crime to engage in the business, so that regular importations which paid duty were reduced from 298,000 pounds in 1883 to less than 40,000 pounds in 1885. It is said to say that over half the prepared opium consumed in the country during the past six years has been smuggled. The only practical way to stop it is to reduce the rate of duty. The increase by the last tariff act of $2 per pound simply adds that much to the smugglers' profits and increases the Government revenue. It is believed that an internal revenue tax of not over 5 per cent on the prepared article, and cruises opium admitted free, and a corresponding duty upon prepared smoking opium imported, would put an end to smuggling, and thus accomplish the real purpose of Congress in the enactment of the clauses pertaining to this subject in the McKinley Tariff act.

NEW YORK, December 5th.
The Sun says that Cornelius Bliss and Jesse Seligman, who have just returned from Washington, had a long talk with the President on financial matters. They talked especially about the policy of making free deposits of Government funds with national banks.

Secretary Windom has not been in accord with this policy, but in no sense can the conference between the President and Bliss and Seligman be considered a reflection upon him.

It is understood that Bliss and Seligman, while in one way appearing to oppose the Secretary's policy thought a more liberal course in this respect, and especially at this time, could not be considered objectionable.

Colonel John Singleton Mosby has begun a suit against the United States Government in the United States District Court to recover $400. He sets forth in his complaint that from February 4, 1870, to July 21st, 1875, he was Consul for the Government at Hongkong, China. Between July 21st and November 1st, 1874, he collected from Russell & Co. American merchants in Hongkong $400 on account of shipping and other expenses, and other shipping and other expenses performed for foreign-built vessels owned by them, which carried the American flag. He construed the shipping act of June 27, 1874, which exempted vessels of the United States from the payment of consular fees, as only applying to registered vessels. He was subsequently informed by the State Department that the exemption applied equally to unregistered vessels carrying the American flag, and that the money had been erroneously exacted. So he promptly returned the $400 to Russell & Co. In 1875 the Attorney-General gave an opinion that the statute did not exempt foreign-built vessels from the payment of consular fees. The Department ordered that Colonel Mosby's successor, R. E. Withers, demand the return of the $400 from Russell & Co. Colonel Withers did so and received the money, which he paid into the Treasury of the United States. Petitioner believes that these fees are the property of the Consul and not of the Government, and hence the suit.

CHICAGO, December 5th.
The mysterious disappearance of Millionaire B. H. Campbell was the direct cause of the assignment of this evening to the Chicago Safe and Lock Company, of which corporation the missing man was president, principal stockholder and creditor. The assets were scheduled at $700,000 and the liabilities at $600,000. The factory was shut down and a double guard of watchmen placed around it to guard against fire.

NEWS BY THE AUSTRALIAN MAIL.
We are indebted to our Australian exchanges for the following items:

LONDON, November 29th.
The prospectus of the Westworth Gold-mining Company, with a capital of £500,000, has been issued.

The Portuguese Government are about to repay the sum of £500,000 to Messrs. Baring Brothers.

A French syndicate has purchased the Bright's Gold mines, Victoria.

The General Medical Council has registered Professor A. Stuart's degree of "doctor of medicine," thus recognizing the Sydney University's diploma.

BRISBANE, December 1st.
Mr. J. D. Fitzgerald, addressing a meeting representing a million unionists at Newcastle, said the Messrs. Chaffey would convert the Australian desert into a garden. There was plenty of room for future immigration in Australia, and he urged an international federation of labor.

SYDNEY, December 1st.
Hamilton Frew, who was employed at Bull during the strike as a brakeman by Mr. Joseph Mitchell, M.L.A., was arrested to-day, and remained until Saturday next, in connection with the attempted wreckage of the freight-laborers' train on the 20th of October. W. Clark, who is also awaiting his trial on the same charge, was released on bail on Saturday owing to the serious illness of his child.

LONDON, December 2nd.
The Queen has written to the Countess of Jersey congratulating her upon her recovery from her recent severe illness.

The steamship Etahopia, of the Allan line, bound from New York, with 140 passengers, is now five days overdue. Serious fears are entertained as to her safety.

Mr. Parnell has declared that no Gladstonian is to be trusted, and has called Mr. Gladstone "an untried and untried man," and "a glib and glib gentleman." He accuses the section of the Irish party which includes Messrs. Sexton and Healy with conspiring with Mr. Labouchere and Professor J. Stuart to oust him (Mr. Parnell). He has also accused Mr. Gladstone of having provoked the present situation, and called him (Mr. Gladstone) the "leader-killer" who stabbed Mr. Isaac Butt in the back. He admits that he made a mistake in not keeping his pledge not to reveal the proposals made to him in the interview at Hawarden, and states that the Irish party virtually agreed to decline Home Rule on the lines sketched out at Hawarden.

Archbishop Croke denies the truth of the statement cabled on Saturday, that he said he considered Mr. Parnell's morals were a matter between himself and his Protestant Bishop.

Mr. John Dillon has been urged to accept the leadership of the Irish party, in place of Mr. Parnell.

The friends of Mr. Parnell in Dublin are confident that he will prove triumphant in the present difficulty.

Mr. Parnell dominated the meeting of the Irish members, and his bold and brilliant tactics to secure delay, in order to enable the Irish people to influence the party, excited admiration.

Mr. Harrington, who is now at Chicago, is organizing strong support there for Mr. Parnell. Many people threaten to never again subscribe to the fund of the Irish National League unless Mr. Parnell remains the leader.

Messrs. O'Brien and Dillon's mission in America has been suspended.

Many excited meetings have been held in Cork, at which the cries of "Gladstone, the slippery devil," and "to hell with Dillon, O'Brien, and Davitt," were used, and Messrs. Gladstone and Morley hissed.

The Dublin National League is almost unanimously in favour of Mr. Parnell. A priest seconded a vote of confidence in the hon. gentleman.

BRISBANE, December 2nd.
The Legislative Assembly's motion for a fortnightly British mail service via Torres Strait was concurred in, and the House rose at 3:50 a.m.

LONDON, December 2nd.
The Government have decided to grant a general advance to the police of the metropolis.

December 3rd.
The Australian bred race-horse Nardian ran third in the Hunter's Hurdle Race, at Hampton Park.

The Agents-General for the Australian Colonies, Sir Charles Tupper (High Commissioner for Canada in the United Kingdom), and Sir Frederick Abel (Secretary of the Imperial Institute), are agreed that the holding of a mining exhibition on a grand scale would be an immense advantage to the British Empire. Sir Frederick Abel will prepare an outline of the scheme and of the extent of ground available. He is anxious to ascertain to what extent the colonies will co-operate.

The debate on the Irish Land Purchase Bill was continued in the House of Commons last night. Mr. Balfour, in the course of his speech, estimated that the sum of £95,000,000 would be required to complete the purchase by the Irish tenantry of the land held by them. Mr. Gladstone objected that the Bill provided no adequate offer between the tenant and the State.

The cruiser Katoomba, one of the new vessels which are to form the Australian auxiliary squadron, made a very successful trial trip in the North Sea yesterday. She ran for eight hours under her natural draught, the developed engine power being greater than the stipulated maximum.

COOKTOWN, December 4th.
The Anglo-Saxon No. 1 West, at Limestone, has crushed 128 tons of stone for a yield of 148 oz of gold.

LONDON, December 7th.
Silver is now quoted at 48d. per ounce.

After a stormy meeting of the Irish party, Justin McCarthy was elected leader in the place of Parnell, deceased.

A girl has died under Dr. Koch's treatment. McKinlay's tariff is causing heavy failures in America.

SYDNEY, December 7th.
Crick has been re-elected for West Macquarie. The members of the military conference will probably visit Thursday Island defences in a month hence.

December 8th.

QUININUM WINE

OF LABARRAQUE.

Unique preparation of this kind,
approved by the Academy of Medicine of Paris, is the condensation of all the active principles of the Cinchona Bark. A few grammes of the Quininum produce the same effect as several kilos of Cinchona.

(Robiquet, Professor at the School of Pharmacy of Paris.)
"I sought for a long time a powerful tonic, I have found it in your Quininum which I consider as the restorative par excellence of weakened constitutions."

Dr. CADART.
The Quininum Wine of Labarraque is the most useful complement of Quinine in the treatment of fevers. Its effects are particularly remarkable in old fevers and in paludal cachexia.

Prof. BOUCHARDAT.
In nearly all the Pyrexias, the Quininum Wine of Labarraque is indispensable
